

Isn't it about time
someone made life a bit easier?

Fairness for Families

If re-elected, Kristina Keneally will introduce the Fairness for Families Act to help ease cost of living pressures. It has four parts:

1. Capping major fees and charges so that there are no increases above the rate of inflation.
2. Capping public transport fares so that there are no increases above the rate of inflation.
3. Keeping Sydney Water, Hunter Water and State Water in public hands.
4. Providing a $250 annual Energy Rebate for households earning up to $150,000 a year.

This isn't just another promise. It will be the law.

Kristina Keneally will introduce the Fairness for Families Act to help ease cost of living pressures.
