

Kristina Keneally – Labor Premier of NSW

Premier Kristina Keneally, husband Ben and their two sons

As a mother raising a family in Sydney with her husband, Kristina Keneally understands all parents want the best for their children.

That's why Labor has invested record amounts in our schools and connected every classroom to the Internet.

Labor has also ensured NSW maintains its AAA credit rating in the face of the Global Financial Crisis.

“On Election Day, March 26, you will need to decide what matters to you, your family and the NSW economy.”

“If you choose to support Kristina Keneally, you're choosing to protect public services and to build a stronger state.”
